MEMORANDUM FOR: General Carter

I note Item E in the notes of this morning's Check List reflecting concern in Hanoi over the Viet Cong morale in South Vietnam. This subject was discussed at some length at the Special Group (CI) yesterday, and it was the judgment of Mr. Thompson that when the rate of defections exceeded the rate of recruitments, and this became known, the tide of the battle will have turned and hence we could look to the future with considerable optimism. Thompson and others indicated that knowledge of the defection rate would have an important bearing on the corresponding recruitment rate.

I wonder if we are exploiting the news, which is very favorable particularly for the month of March, and if we are not doing so, can steps be taken by our station or by others to inform the South Vietnam population of the facts in the hope that they will be governed by them?
